

4-H Officer Training Club Historian

Offices in 4H

- President
- Vice President
- Treasurer
- Secretary
- Historian
- Reporter
- Recreation Leader
- Photographer

In this presentation, you will learn...

- Responsibilities of the Historian
- Guidelines for Historian books

Responsibilities of the Historian

- Create a meaningful book
- Organize a scrap book
- Collect items throughout the year of group's accomplishments
- Make book complete
- Accurate Records

Accurate Records

Keep a record of all the club's activities.

-club trips

-meetings

-parties

-and more!

-community service activities

-fund raisers

-committees at work

Collect Items Throughout the Year

- Pictures of the club and club members
- News clippings
- News stories

Organize the Club Historian Book

- Title Page
 - Year, 4 H club name, and historian's name
- List group officers, members, and leaders
- Charter statement (if your group has one)
- Pictures and clippings
- Ribbons for group
- Correspondence
- Secretary and Treasurer book

Guidelines for Historian Books

- Cover of book should be in good condition and last for many years.
- Pages should be securely fastened.
- Items need to be in good condition and fastened securely to each page.
- Tell a story about the club year.
- Always be accurate and neat.

Create a Meaningful Book

SUBMITTED

Howard County 4-H members and their friends celebrated the New Year early at a 4-H Junior Fun Night on Dec. 30 at the Cresco Fitness Center.

Fear Factor Foods at 4-H Junior Fun Night

HOWARD COUNTY - Howard County 4-H members and their friends celebrated the New Year early at a 4-H Junior Fun Night on Dec. 30 at the Cresco Fitness Center. Chaperones for the evening were Duane Bodermann, Peggy Hovey and Lynette Anderson. County 4-H Council members who helped during the evening were Carmen Dohman, Jenni Tupy, Kelsey Stika, Brianna Lipa, Cole Stika and Josh Stika.

The evening started at 6 p.m. with registration and games. Swimming and card games were organized until 7:30 p.m. and then a light supper of pizza was served. Fear Factor foods were introduced with each youth braving the challenge blindfolded to taste different foods. Youth tasted the following foods: sour apple pudding, prunes, olives, water chestnuts, cherries, applesauce, and jello powder.

Evening activities resumed following Fear Factor and included Crazy Kickball, Capture the Flag and Dodgeball.

Youth participating in the lock-in were: Austin Hrdlicka, Trevor Trende, Logan Johnson, Aaron Wetherington, Cooper Sweeney, Bobby Swestka, Jacob Kuhn, Billy Swestka, Brynn Bodermann, Katelynn Burke, Kevin Pira, Blair Bodermann, Patty Johnson, Christofer Lipa, Katrina Sanders, Sawyer Peckham, Clayton Ollendieck, Skye Meinecke, Reece Meinecke, Ben Hron, Tyler Simon, Zac Gillen, Jimmy Krukow, Karissa Stika, Torie McConnell, Kennedy Rose, Renae Jensen, Chance Thronsen and Ryan Steffen.

The County 4-H Junior Fun Night was held on December 31st with the theme “Fear Factor.” Our junior 4-H members who attended played games, completed the Fear Factor Food Challenge, and went swimming at the Cresco Fitness Center. Attending from our club were Kate, Joey, Bethany, Kris, and Jordan.

Make the Book Complete

- Keep it concise but complete
- Include all activities of the group
- Tell a story, but don't be too wordy

So you're historian of your group...

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY
University Extension

4H 71E Reprinted January 2000

In this presentation, you have learned...

- Responsibilities of the Historian
- Guidelines for Historian books

Now YOU are ready to serve as a
GREAT 4-H Club Historian!

